

The “perfection” in 1 Cor. 13:10 cannot be Christ because:

- 1) It does not say “again” or “returns.”
- 2) “the perfection” is neuter gender in Greek. Therefore cannot refer to a person.
- 3) 1 Cor. 13:8-12 => the gifts are temporary. If they last until Christ comes, they would be permanent, because when Christ returns, time will end!
- 4) V. 13 says “faith, hope and love” will remain after the gifts have ceased. But Rom. 8:24, Heb 11:1 => faith and hope cease when Christ comes., therefore the Gifts must cease before Christ comes, not when he comes.
- 5) If the Gifts last until Christ comes, they will be active while “the lawless one” is performing false “miracles, signs and wonders.” 2 Thess. 2:1-12 But the Bible gives us no way to distinguish the false ones from the true ones. Yet we have 2 Tim. 3:16-17 saying the Bible gives us everything we need. Therefore the Spiritual Gifts from God must have ceased before “the lawless one” comes. Therefore the Gifts cannot last until Christ comes again.

The “perfection” in 1 Cor. 13:10 cannot be Christ because:

- 1) It does not say “again” or “returns.”
- 2) “the perfection” is neuter gender in Greek. Therefore cannot refer to a person.
- 3) 1 Cor. 13:8-12 => the gifts are temporary. If they last until Christ comes, they would be permanent, because when Christ returns, time will end!
- 4) V. 13 says “faith, hope and love” will remain after the gifts have ceased. But Rom. 8:24, Heb 11:1 => faith and hope cease when Christ comes., therefore the Gifts must cease before Christ comes, not when he comes.
- 5) If the Gifts last until Christ comes, they will be active while “the lawless one” is performing false “miracles, signs and wonders.” 2 Thess. 2:1-12 But the Bible gives us no way to distinguish the false ones from the true ones. Yet we have 2 Tim. 3:16-17 saying the Bible gives us everything we need. Therefore the Spiritual Gifts from God must have ceased before “the lawless one” comes. Therefore the Gifts cannot last until Christ comes again.

The “perfection” in 1 Cor. 13:10 cannot be Christ because:

- 1) It does not say “again” or “returns.”
- 2) “the perfection” is neuter gender in Greek. Therefore cannot refer to a person.
- 3) 1 Cor. 13:8-12 => the gifts are temporary. If they last until Christ comes, they would be permanent, because when Christ returns, time will end!
- 4) V. 13 says “faith, hope and love” will remain after the gifts have ceased. But Rom. 8:24, Heb 11:1 => faith and hope cease when Christ comes., therefore the Gifts must cease before Christ comes, not when he comes.
- 5) If the Gifts last until Christ comes, they will be active while “the lawless one” is performing false “miracles, signs and wonders.” 2 Thess. 2:1-12 But the Bible gives us no way to distinguish the false ones from the true ones. Yet we have 2 Tim. 3:16-17 saying the Bible gives us everything we need. Therefore the Spiritual Gifts from God must have ceased before “the lawless one” comes. Therefore the Gifts cannot last until Christ comes again.

The “perfection” in 1 Cor. 13:10 cannot be Christ because:

- 1) It does not say “again” or “returns.”
- 2) “the perfection” is neuter gender in Greek. Therefore cannot refer to a person.
- 3) 1 Cor. 13:8-12 => the gifts are temporary. If they last until Christ comes, they would be permanent, because when Christ returns, time will end!
- 4) V. 13 says “faith, hope and love” will remain after the gifts have ceased. But Rom. 8:24, Heb 11:1 => faith and hope cease when Christ comes., therefore the Gifts must cease before Christ comes, not when he comes.
- 5) If the Gifts last until Christ comes, they will be active while “the lawless one” is performing false “miracles, signs and wonders.” 2 Thess. 2:1-12 But the Bible gives us no way to distinguish the false ones from the true ones. Yet we have 2 Tim. 3:16-17 saying the Bible gives us everything we need. Therefore the Spiritual Gifts from God must have ceased before “the lawless one” comes. Therefore the Gifts cannot last until Christ comes again.

The “perfection” in 1 Cor. 13:10
cannot be Christ because:

- 1) It does not say “again” or “returns.”
- 2) “the perfection” is neuter gender in Greek.
Therefore, cannot refer to a person.
- 3) 1 Cor. 13:8-12 => the gifts are temporary.
If they last until Christ comes, they would be permanent, because when Christ returns, time will end! (Rev. 10:6, KJV)
- 4) V. 13 says “faith, hope and love” will remain after the gifts have ceased. But Rom. 8:24, Heb 11:1 => faith and hope cease when Christ comes., therefore the Gifts must cease before Christ comes, not when he comes.
- 5) If the Gifts last until Christ comes, they will be active while “the lawless one” is performing false “miracles, signs and wonders.” 2 Thess. 2:1-12 But the Bible gives us no way to distinguish the false ones from the true ones. Yet we have 2 Tim. 3:16-17 saying the Bible gives us everything we need. Therefore the Spiritual Gifts from God must have ceased before “the lawless one” comes.